

Comfortable Enough

Mac Ayres

Oh, oh
Oh, oh

Heartache
Can you save me from this heartache?
Thought I made it past the hard days
It only lasts a while
Wide awake
Thought I felt the earth shake
Still not enough to leave a lonely place
For only half the day, no

So tell me, ooo
What ever happened to the old you?
Tell me, ooo
You never used to overthink things through

Comfortable enough
Oh, at least I had my fun
As the color fades to black
I would take the whole thing back now, baby
When the sky starts cavin' in
At least I said I saw it comin', right
Oh

Comfortable enough
Oh, at least I had my fun
As the color turns to gray
I would throw it all away tonight now
When the walls start closin' in
At least I said I saw it comin'

Floatin'
Just above the water
Hopin'
If I keep head up long enough, I know
It'll wash me to the shore, oh
Finally there
Before the foolish boy was self aware
Before the lights had fully cleared the air
Before my heart could even learn to bear
Oh, you wish it wasn't fair

Comfortable enough
Oh, at least I had my fun
As the color fades to black
I would take the whole thing back now, baby
When the sky starts cavin' in
At least I said I saw it comin', right
Oh

Comfortable enough
Oh, at least I had my fun
As the color turns to gray
I would throw it all away tonight now
When the walls start closin' in
At least I said I saw it comin'

Colors fade to gray
Throw it all away (Throw it all away)
As they come around
Let it be for now

Colors fade to gray (Oh, they fade to gray)
Throw it all away (Throw it all away)
As they come around (Oh, they come around)
Let it be for now

Comfortable enough
Oh, at least I had my fun
As the color fades to black
I would take the whole thing back now, baby
When the sky starts cavin' in
At least I said I saw it comin', right
Oh, ah ha, ah ha

Comfortable enough
Oh, at least I had my fun
As the color turns to gray
I would throw it all away tonight now
When the walls start closin' in
At least I said I saw it comin', oh

I said I hope it was, hope it was worth it all
Oh, I hope, oh
I hope it was worth, worth it all, oh
I hope
I hope
I hope
I hope

(I hope it was worth it all)
