

It's Not

Mac Ayres

Tonight, a man pours his heart out live on the air
With anyone listening
Stay tuned

It's not you, it's just everybody else
It's not you, it's just everybody else
It's not you, it's just everybody else
It's not you, it's just everybody else

Make the voices go away
You have nothing left to say
It's not everybody else this time
Forever lost its hold on me
I hope my best days are in history
It's not that something's wrong, but something just ain't right

I finally know, finally know
Baby it's you, it's you
Not everybody else this time
I finally know, finally know
Baby it's you, it's you
Not everybody else this time

Oh, woah, woah, no
Baby it's you, it's you
Not everybody else this time
