

Me vs. Myself

Mac Ayres

Threw away all of my pictures, kept the frames
Drove my car into the river just to wash away the pain
Said she found me in the riptide when the moon was almost high
Oh, she never even asked me why

Feel it deep in my soul
Though she already knows
Even when it's alright
I still think of the worst sometimes
Feel it deep in my soul
Though she already knows
Even when it's alright
I still think of the worst sometimes

Is it you and I? (You and I, or me versus you?)
Or is it just me versus you? (You and I, or me versus you?)
Said I hope you wish me well
Oh, 'cause baby when you're gone, I start to dwell
Oh, looks like it's just me versus myself
(Just me versus myself)
(Just me versus myself)
(Just me versus myself)

There's a story that I tell her
Seems like more than once in awhile
How my life could seem to pass me by
It's a funny contradiction
Oh, when just the other night
How I said the past is better left behind

Take whatever you've earned
Save it for the end of the world
If it runs out again
Sure you'll think of a plan, plan, plan
Take whatever you've earned
Save it for the end of the world
If it runs out again
I'm sure you'll think of something

Is it you and I? (You and I, or me versus you?)
Or is it just me versus you? (You and I, or me versus you?)
Said I hope you wish me well
Oh, 'cause baby when you're gone, I start to dwell
Oh, looks like it's just me versus myself

Baby I'm not doing great, but I'm holding my own
It's better to hear what you say than to be alone
Baby I'm not okay, but I'm holding my own, own
Said it's better to hear what you're screaming out than to be alone, oh

Is it you and I? (You and I, you and I)
Or is it just me versus you? (Just me, just me versus you)
Said I hope you wish me well
Oh, 'cause baby when you're gone, I start to dwell
Oh, looks like it's just me versus myself

(You and I)

You and I, you and I
(Is it just me versus you?)
Said I hope you wish me well
Oh, 'cause baby when you're gone, I start to dwell
Oh, looks like it's just me versus myself (Versus myself)

(Just me versus myself)
(Just me versus myself)
(Just me versus myself)

(Just me versus myself)
(Just me versus myself)
(Just me versus myself)
