

Saving

Mac Ayres

No sayin' nothing, got all my fears all set in place, uh
Tap on my window, yeah, we got so much to celebrate (Yeah)
No sayin' nothing, I think I've listened all I can (Just) Puttin' your trust in, that I just always understand
I said I'm openin' up, I'm tryin' best as I could You said the walls wouldn't let you in
Feel like I'm closin' the gap between the now and the past
I just need something to keep my grip (Yeah)

Who am I savin'? No one's comin' for me
Keep on sayin', tell me why you always play
Who am I savin'? No one's comin' for me
Out of sight, but you're still in mind, baby
Fallin' in love, oh
Who am I savin'? No one's comin' for me
Keep on sayin', tell me why you always play
Who am I savin'? No one's comin' for me
Out of sight, but you're still in mind, baby
Fallin' in love, oh

Just to be honest, don't know how much more I could take
If what we got is different then I don't want to stay away, oohoooh
Ain't no more second-guessin', yeah
When I'm with you, it's just a dream
No bigger questions, it's just the distance in between, yeah

Who am I savin'? No one's comin' for me
Keep on sayin', tell me why you always play
Who am I savin'? No one's comin' for me
Out of sight, but you're still in mind, baby
Fallin' in love, oh
Who am I savin'? No one's comin' for me
Keep on sayin', tell me why you always play
Who am I savin'? No one's comin' for me
Out of sight, but you're still in mind, baby
Fallin' in love, oh

Who am I savin'? No one's comin' for me (Huh)
