

Smiley Boy

Mac Ayres

I'm stuck in a danger zone
The king of a lonely throne
And the line between my love and hate grows thin
Nobody worth trusting in
I'm flying without hollow wings
I just hope I don't burn out against the sun
Have I come this far to tell you that I'm done?

Feels like this won't change
Feels like this won't change
And it's got a hold on me
Feels like it won't change
Told you I'd be waiting on blue
Blue skies

I don't even know myself
Feel like I'm somebody else
And I'm finding out how far I'd go to change
Back into that smiley boy
Before he heard all the noise
Oh they say some things just never go our way, no
But you want to tell me how I can't complain

Feels like this won't change
Feels like this won't change
And it's got a hold on me
Feels like it won't change, yeah yeah
Told you I'd be waiting on blue
Blue skies

Said oh, and If I'm being honest I don't miss yesterday
So here's to hoping I can keep my head on straight

Feels like it's never gonna change
Feels like it won't change, yeah
Feels like it won't change, yeah
Told you I'd be waiting on blue
Blue skies
