Mac Ayres

You're moving so close to me baby
It don't feel that close enough
All of this distance, these maybes
All those saying it's that stuff (it's that stuff)
Couldn't kept close, kept you floating
Underneath that breeze behind
And I don't wanna wait 'til the morning
For you to tell me that you're fine

No good at finding it, no good at finding
No good at finding, no good at finding

Never in mind, I'll take you under
Just so you stay again
Raise in the spring, lose in the summer
You've got to feel this way

Oh, I'mma try to get there in forty
If Chris is driving then it's give or take
I tell you you're the one, you're my only
How she still so far away

She's no good at hiding (she's so good at hiding, she's so good
She's no good at hiding (she's so good at hiding baby)
She's no good at hiding (she's so good at hiding, she's so good
No good at hiding

Never in mind, I'll take you under
Just so you stay again
Raise in the spring, lose in the summer
You've got to feel this way

Never in mind (she's so good at hiding), I'll take you under (s er (she's so good at hiding)

You've got to feel this way

Never in mind, I'll take you under
You've got me feeling this way
