

Yesterday and You

Mac Davis

Well, I damn near froze in Kansas
Standin' by the roadside
Long enough to hitch a ride
Farmers' coming up with load full o' chickens
And the fans say jump inside
Lord God I nearly cried

Well, by sundown
I was hummin' through the rain
On the outskirts of town
Before I caught a freight train
Goin' my way
Hey hey hey, ya'll

But at least I was a hundred miles
Closer to LA
I guess I was a hundred miles
Further away from
Yesterday and you, child

Yesterday and you
Na nana nah nana na na
Hey, hey
Na nana nah nana na na
Hey, hey

Two days later I was stranded in the desert
With the sand burin' through my shoes
A two day problem blues
Hundred miles from nowhere city
Feelin' like bad news
Feelin' like I paid my dues

With a frame full of pain
And a face full of sand I prayed for rain
Huh! Kicked a tin can down the highway
Hey hey hey, ya'll

But at least I was a hundred miles
Closer to LA
I guess I was a hundred miles
Further away from
Yesterday and you, child

Yesterday and you
Na nana nah nana na na
Hey, hey
Na nana nah nana na na
Hey, hey

Hey, hey, hey, yesterday and you
(Hey, hey, hey, yesterday and you)

Yesterday, yesterday and you...
