

Shining

Mac DeMarco

My love must be broken
What's been going on?
Can't stop my heart wandering
Least not for too long

And I wanted to want only you, my girl
What more could I want?
But my heart seems to have an M.O. of its own
And I'll go, if not just to find out

If the sun's still shining down on her
If the sun's still shining down on her

Don't cry, what a wonder
Look how far we've come
Take your heart, roll it over
Go out, have some fun

All I wanted to be's gone away now
Gone away now from me
You'll be much better off without someone
Whose heart's aching to see

If the sun's still shining down on her
Is the sun still shining down on her?
Is the sun still shining down on her?
Is the sun still shining down on her?
