

Stay High

Mac Lethal

All I do is stay high, 'cause your love feels like
I took every drug all at once
I'm high as fuck off you
Oooh
Stay high, 'cause your love feels like
I took every drug all at once
I'm high as fuck off you
Oooh

On a scale of one to ten, you're a triple six
Still got a broken soul, that you didn't fix
I'll get a wrench from the toolbox and make repairs
My only memory of you is that angry stare
Why don't you love me the way that I love you?
You act like you want me, and then you turn cold
There is a layer of ice on your heart
But I know underneath, there is nothing but gold
How ruthless! All you do is lie
Don't remember what the truth is
There's no love inside of you, it's nothing but pollution
You don't need to hit me, you don't need to scream at me
But something 'bout the way you love me is so goddamn abusive
When you don't touch me, it hurt so bad
That it still leaves bruises, it still leaves bruises
I would say I've had enough of all your excuses
But honestly the truth is

All I do is stay high, 'cause your love feels like
I took every drug all at once
I'm high as fuck off you
Oooh
Stay high, 'cause your love feels like
I took every drug all at once
I'm high as fuck off you
Oooh

On a scale of one to ten, you're a negative ten
I'm outside in the cold, you ain't letting me in
This is love below zero
Put my heart on the record player, and drop the needle
Why don't you love me the way that I love you?
You act like you hate me, and then you turn cold
There is a layer of ice on your heart
But I know underneath there is nothing but gold
Goddamn I love the fuck out of you
But apparently I wouldn't fuck the love out of you
I would love nothing more than to struggle with you
But you're walking through a murder scene with blood on your shoes
Now you tell me not to please
There's difference between spreading love and spreading that disease
Now you telling me to leave
Life is in the apples, but death is in the trees

All I do is stay high, 'cause your love feels like
I took every drug all at once
I'm high as fuck off you
Oooh

Stay high, 'cause your love feels like
I took every drug all at once
I'm high as fuck off you
Ooh
All I do is stay high, 'cause your love feels like
I took every drug all at once
I'm high as fuck off you
Ooh
Stay high, 'cause your love feels like
I took every drug all at once
I'm high as fuck off you
Ooh
