Mac Miller

Yeah, yeah
These motherfuckers don't know
These motherfuckers don't know, yeah

The trap is filled up with so many mistakes, can't believe I'm alive
Will you be a saint or a sinner? Whatever you want, you decide
All day I been faded, all day I been faded, but fuck it, I drive
Now I'm in a Mercedes, a pill made me crazy, today I could die
Fall asleep in the pussy, wake up to the money
My life a cliché
I think I deserve a promotion, I think I'ma need me a raise
Tired of these motherfuckers keep playin'
'Cause me I created the game though
Stack my money and lay low, they can't fuck with my bankroll

Tell everyone that you know, all my life I been a real one, yeah
Tell everyone that you know, all my life I been a real one, yeah
Tell everyone that you know, all my life I been a real one, yeah
I been real one, yeah, I been a real one

Yeah, yeah, I get up with the sun, only sleep for a minute
Then back to the grind
They party and bullshit, get wasted, I done it
They wastin' my time
I'm faded my eyes low, so no reason to hide that I'm blatantly high
Bitches been trippin' since in the beginnin'
Don't listen every time they tellin' me lies, oh no
All they ever wanted, was to be somebody special
Couple dollars dancin' on the dental
Cap in mind, don't mind though by the elbow, you know
Know you poppin', when you make a million dollars on the cellphone
Money been a manifesto, said, the money been a manifesto
I'm up like espresso, the bitches say "hello"
I'm outta' the friendzone
I rode with the homies, where ever we go
We don't follow no dresscode
And I'm still young, gettin' faded to feel numb

Tell everyone that you know, all my life I been a real one, yeah
Tell everyone that you know, all my life I been a real one, yeah
Tell everyone that you know, all my life I been a real one, yeah
Tell everyone that you know, all my life I been a real one, yeah
I been real one, yeah, I been a real one
