

Tomorrow Will Never Know

Mac Miller

Do you fear (Your call has been forwarded to-) that you'll have no control?

You walk through this world with your head above water

Shoes made of copper, just tryin' to float

The lake's frozen over, look down at yourself

What's starin' back doesn't please you

The man don't believe you

He sees through the lies that you tell

Cards in your hand, you're lookin' at nothin'

(Your call has been forwarded to an automated-)

You wonder when God will just listen and give you a break

And He says, "See, living and dying are one and the same"

(Your call has been forwarded to an automated-)

Do they dream just like we do?

Do they dream just like we do?

Do they love just like we do? (Oh)

Do they love just like we do? (Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh)

Do they feel just like we do? (Oh)

Do they feel just like we do? (Oh-oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh-oh)

Do you know anything at all?

You've been waiting for answers

These parades and dancers keep building your castle so strong

The moon made of water, you swim to the shore

You can try your best escaping

The universe is breaking

You say you can't take it no more

The pressure is building like buildings you jumped from

Wishing that wishing could lift this conundrum

The streets that you walk on are shallow

But do you feel as big as your shadow?

No-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh

No-oh-oh, oh-oh

No-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh

No, no, no, no-oh

Do they dream just like we do?

Do they dream just like we do?

Do they love just like we do?

Do they love just like we do?

Do they feel just like we do?

Do they feel just like we do?

Said, if you could make, if you could make

If you could make, if you could make, if you could make

If you could make, if you could make, if you could make it go away

Give you a chance to start all over
