Carry You

Mac Powell

I see all the pain in your eyes
And I know all the tears that you cry
Baby I ain't that kind of man
That's gonna leave you here with empty hands
Will you let me be the one
When your hope is gone?

I'm never gonna walk away
I won't let go, don't be afraid
Through the hardest times and pain you'll find I'll carry you
I'm not sayin' that it won't get tough
I'll be right here when you've had enough
And when your darkest day has come
And you can't carry on, I'll carry you!

You have been let down before
And I know you deserve so much more
Baby I ain't that kind of man
And I hope that you will understand
I'm gonna be the one
When your hope is gone!

I'm never gonna walk away
I won't let go, don't be afraid
Through the hardest times and pain you'll find I'll carry you
I'm not sayin' that it won't get tough
I'll be right here when you've had enough
And when your darkest day has come
And you can't carry on, I'll carry you!

When you can't carry on
I will carry you!

I'm never gonna walk away
I won't let go, don't be afraid
Through the hardest times and pain you'll find I'll carry you
I'm not sayin' that it won't get tough
I'll be right here when you've had enough
And when your darkest day has come
And you can't carry on, I'll carry you!

Whoa, yeah, I'll carry you!
I will carry you!
I'm gonna carry you!
