

The Giver

Mac Powell

You are the giver of all good things
The sun in the sky and the air I breathe
Even through troubles I still believe
That You are the giver of all good things

You are the maker of heaven and earth
Everything created by Your word
You are my Father, God and King
You are the giver of all good things

Well I believe it, I receive it
Everything You have for me
Through the battles and the blessings
You're my comfort and my peace
Solid rock that I can stand on
And the reason that I sing
You are the giver of all good things

You are the healer of my heart
The hidden wounds and the deepest scars
They led me right here where You are
Cause You are the healer of my heart

Well I believe it, I receive it
Everything You have for me
Through the battles and the blessings
You're my comfort and my peace
Solid rock that I can stand on
And the reason that I sing
You are the giver of all good things

I got strength in my weakness
I got joy in the morning
I got peace like a river
From the giver of all good things
I've been found and forgiven
I've been washed in the water
I've been saved and delivered
By the giver of all good things

Well I believe it, I receive it
Everything You have for me
Through the battles and the blessings
You're my comfort and my peace
Solid rock that I can stand on
And the reason that I sing
You are the giver of all good things
Yes, You are the giver of all good things
