

Bridges

Amy Macdonald

May the bridges I burn light my way
May the ashes get caught in your eyes
May the dust cloud ruin your day
May the rain fall heavy on you now

What's it all to me
I say the words as I do hear
I can't sleep until it's said
What's it all to you
Your lies become your truth
But who believes you in the end

'Round and 'round we go
I've heard it all before
Will you twist the knife?
'Cause I can't feel it anymore
A bullet to my heart
Lying broken on the floor
Just kick me when I'm down
'Cause that's the man you are

Looking back on things I'd change
Is there anything that I can do or say
But you always seem to fan the flames
Out of control, there's nowhere left to go

What's it all to me
I say it as I see it
There's no rest until it's said
What's it all to you
You don't care for the truth
Your lies will get you
In the end

'Round and 'round we go
I've heard it all before
Will you twist the knife?
'Cause I can't feel it anymore
A bullet to my heart
Lying broken on the floor
Just kick me when I'm down
'Cause that's the man you are

I'm running away from you
It's all I ever do
Trying to find the path that leads me back home
The place I always go
The place you'll never know
You'll never have a hold on me
'Cause nothing's like it used to be

'Round and 'round we go
Will you twist the knife?
'Cause I can't feel it anymore
A bullet to my heart

Just kick me when I'm down
'Cause that's the man you are

Running away from it all
Running away from the world
Running away from our love
