

Strong Again

Amy Macdonald

Ooh, I wanna hold on for life
I wanna see the tides turn
The fire burned again
Ooh, you're the love of my life
It felt so right then
I know it will again

I can't wait for too much longer
My heart is full, it's beating stronger and

Oh, I want to let you know
The words just don't come out
I want you to be strong again
Oh, it's harder every day
'Cause life gets in your way
I need you to be strong again

Ooh, do you remember the days
We were so young then
We didn't care at all
Ooh, how things have changed
Let's fly again
Unite again my love

I can't wait for too much longer
My heart is full, it's beating stronger and

Oh, I want to let you know
The words just don't come out
I want you to be strong again
Ooh, it's harder every day
'Cause life gets in your way
I need you to be strong again

I want for life
It's you by my side
I'll wait for the signs
From you

Ooh, I want to let you know
The words just don't come out
I want you to be strong again
Ooh, it's harder every day
'Cause life gets in your way
I need you to be strong again

I want to let you know
The words just don't come out
I want you to be strong again
It's harder every day
'Cause life gets in your way
I need you to be strong again
