

Remnant (March of the Undead IV)

Machinae Supremacy

In the eye of the storm our brief refuge 'til dawn
Just close your eyes until it's over

All the faithful ones
Pray for a benevolent god
All the faithful ones pray for

God, this who you are? "Your will be done"?
Then you have gone too far
Tell me, the sun remains only so you'll see the pain
That you have caused?

There is blood everywhere in this godforsaken place
Dead walk the streets of our cities

All the faithful ones
Pray for a benevolent god
All the faithful ones pray for

God, this who you are? "Your will be done"?
Then you have gone too far
Tell me, the sun remains only so you'll see the pain
That you have caused?

Each day that was one more tomorrow is a gift
For those who fall will meet their fate
Run for your life no time for sorrow or regret
For those who die all walk again

God, this who you are? "Your will be done"?
Then you have gone too far
Tell me, the sun remains only so you'll see the pain
That you have caused?

God, this who you are? "Your will be done"?
Then you have gone too far
Tell me, the sun remains only so you'll see the pain
That you have caused?
