

don't wait run fast

Machine Gun Kelly

How many of you really know you're alive?
They pulled me over doing 135
Show me the money and I'll show you the lies
Everyone's equal till it's time to divide

Let's go

I got a problem I don't need to define
She's my reason, my reason for decline
I want love even if it's for the night and I feel like I'm falling but won't fall into line

Oh no

You want this, you got that
You want this, you got that, uh

Don't wait, watch 'em walk right past you
Run fast, run fast while you have the chance
Don't speak, let 'em look right at you
Run back, run back while you have the chance
You want this, you got that, yeah, yeah
You want this, you got that, yeah, yeah

I wasn't raised by a millionaire
I can't be saved by a digital prayer
I can't be tamed by a man in a chair
They say that I'm going to Hell, I say we're already there

Oh no

Take a picture if you want it to last
Maybe one day you'll be happy at last
I got the answers so I don't need to ask
I know that this was not an accident, I wanted to crash

Let's go

Don't wait, watch 'em walk right past you
Run fast, run fast while you have the chance
Don't speak, let 'em look right at you
Run back, run back while you have the chance
You want this, you got that, yeah, yeah
You want this, you got that, yeah, yeah

Smoking cigarettes down to the bone, uh-huh
Calling people friends I don't even know, uh-huh
Rollin' dollar bills, do it off the phone, uh-huh
Uh-huh, uh

Watch the world pass when I'm on the road, uh-huh
Where do I belong? I don't even know, uh-huh
Fake my happiness with diamonds and pearls, uh-huh
Uh-huh, uh

Don't wait, watch 'em walk right past you
Run fast, run fast while you have the chance

Don't speak, let 'em look right at you
Run back, run back while you have the chance
(Open your head and kiss the sky) You want this, you got that, yeah, yeah
(Don't come back for me this time) You want this, you got that, yeah, yeah
