Machine Gun Kelly

Wake up, still drunk from last night
The first dates are always uncomfortable
Stayed up, I couldn't sleep last night
I'll admit, I'm a little dysfunctional
Are you okay with the fact I'm a little off track, to be honest
I've been through relationships, I've never been in love, but I want this

Ever since you walked away, I can't wait to taste your breath
Sunset on my black parade, and I can't wait to see what's next
When the clothes are off and the phones are off
And the lights are on 'cause you turn me on

Pick up, pick up your phone
I know you just gave me your number but I wanna know
What's up with us because I got a feeling
Tell me if it's mutual
Are you with anybody right now?
Or could you step out and talk to me?
I'd text you but it's better to call
'Cause tomorrow there'll be less that I have to delete

Ever since you walked away, I can't wait to taste your breath
Sunset on my black parade, and I can't wait to see what's next
When the clothes are off and the phones are off
And the lights are on 'cause you turn me on

Cover my mouth with yours so there's nothing to say
Even the silence that I have with you is okay
Let's do it like it's the first time, like it's the first time

Ever since you walked away, I can't wait to taste your breath
Sunset on my black parade, and I can't wait to see what's next
When the clothes are off, and the phones are off
And the lights are on 'cause you turn me on

I, I can't wait to taste your
I, and I can't wait to see your
(I) When the clothes are off, and the phones are off
And the lights are on 'cause you turn me on
Ever since you walked away
