

Leave Me Alone

Machine Gun Kelly

They said I been wrong for way too long
I wish they would leave me alone
They said I ain't strong and I can't hold on
I wish they would leave me alone
He said, she said that I'm wanted by the law
I wish they would leave me alone
And ain't no wanted man gonna get too far
I wish they would leave me alone

I never would have thought as a kid dreamin' to record
That I woulda went through more ups and downs than a seesaw
But this a grown mans world
So you need balls
Million one problems the fuck you bitching at me for Bro, but what you eat doesn't make me shit
So no matter what Imma make these hits
Cuz hating on you couldn't make me rich
So I gotta, gotta go get that dollar out of 15 cents
but the profit don't equal the rich
Shit I'm a father I gotta feed my kid
And I wish
That I could say I had 15 friends
Who happy to see my success
And don't want a piece of my ends
Cuz what they don't understand is I'm struggling just like them
But I just pray that my story is gonna be happy in the end wassup

They said I been wrong for way too long
I wish they would leave me alone
They said I ain't strong and I can't hold on
I wish they would leave me alone
He said, she said that I'm wanted by the law
I wish they would leave me alone
And ain't no wanted man gonna get too far
I wish they would leave me alone

And I pray for happiness in these sad times
Hope some day my life will bubble like it's bath time
Maybe somewhere counting numbers like it's math time
So I gotta grind no breaks fuck half time
I've had a job since 14
Pushing carts, fast food, scrubbing floors yeah I've done the whole thing
But I was fed up
Couldn't just work for anybody
And I guess it's true what they say
School's not for everybody
I'm just a drop out
19 with no home but a notebook front to back is full of big dreams of soho
And I don't know how to answer my girl when she asks
When you gonna work and leave this music in the past
I don't know

They said I been wrong for way too long
I wish they would leave me alone

They said I ain't strong and I can't hold on
I wish they would leave me alone
He said, she said that I'm wanted by the law
I wish they would leave me alone
And ain't no wanted man gonna get too far
I wish they would leave me alone

Yeah isn't this what I asked for
I leave the money in my pocket and a passport
But I never knew that it would come with the price of a hundred people hating on me
Now I gotta wear a mask or Just fast forward
Cuz the internet thug in the city wanna see you fail
But if you rewind know I've been through hell
So no matter what I will prevail
For my father or my daughter on myself and on my team
And these labels couldn't change me either, not one thing
See the streets want me to thug it corporate america thinks I'm priceless
If I remove the curses live my life like miley cyrus
But I'm none of that Fuck that
The money couldn't change me
Still the underdog still the kid it's the same me
Came from the bottom on my own
And I did it as MGK fuck off and leave me alone
I'm gone

They said I been wrong for way too long
I wish they would leave me alone
They said I ain't strong and I can't hold on
I wish they would leave me alone
He said, she said that I'm wanted by the law
I wish they would leave me alone
And ain't no wanted man gonna get too far
I wish they would leave me alone
