Machine Gun Kelly

I guess I lost my life again, it's just one of those nights again
No one wants their life to end, drownin' now in a life of sin
I guess I lost my life again, it's just one of those nights again
No one wants their life to end, drownin' now in a life of sin

Blood shot blue eyes, I recorded two tonight
One is for all those I love, this one's for the suicide
Everything is blue inside, everyone at you and I
People won't say how they feel about you until you die

Everything's cinematic
Protagonist catches a bad habit
By the end, he's a damn addict
Leave him guessin', make a sequel
Let everyone say that it wasn't as good as the first and they lost th eir damn magic Ya'll bein' pragmatic
Bitch, I'm Illmatic
I'm rich and still savage
I'm rich and I'm unhappy
I wish I was back in the days when I had a shitty shirt with my hat b ackwards
Now I'm alone in a vamp castle, I'm tellin' myself it's the last caps ule
But why would I even wanna be alive this year with someone at art bas el?
So high
