

no more

Machine Gun Kelly

Yeah

Aye

I don't make friends no more, I don't take Xans no more
I can't pretend no more, these thoughts won't end no more
I don't do trends no more, I'm not like them no more
I don't look up no more, don't give a fuck no more

I'm in the ends right now, devil's dens right now
Carti lens right now, and death spends right now
I'm off the hinge right now, might sin right now
Nothin' to give right now, nothin' to live right now

No one to call no more
No eat in the mall no more
No skippin' in halls no more
No gettin' in brawls no more
No, I'm not the fault no more
Yeah, I want it all and more
The pain on my mind is sore
But I make the sky my floor
Aye

I don't make friends no more, I don't take Xans no more
I can't pretend no more, these thoughts won't end no more
I don't do trends no more, I'm not like them no more
I don't look up no more, don't give a fuck no more

I'm off the grid right now, I'm stressin' big right now
I'm smokin' cigs right now, I'm off a fifth right now
I got my kid right now, I got a crib right now
I'm finally rich right now, I'm tryin' to live right now

I hate that I grew up sad as a kid, then I grew up and got sadder again
I hate that I couldn't say what I meant
I hate every interview that I did
Lookin' at life through a negative lens
Lookin' like, who are my negative friends?
Pullin' up late at the table again
Then they start askin' for favors again
You can be Cain, I'll be Abel again
We can be brothers, we can't be friends
You'll take my heart and then break it again
Price on my head and I paid it again
Aye

I don't make friends no more, I don't take Xans no more
I can't pretend no more, these thoughts won't end no more
I don't do trends no more, I'm not like them no more
I don't look up no more, don't give a fuck no more

I don't make friends no more, I don't take Xans no more
I can't pretend no more, these thoughts won't end no more
I don't do trends no more, I'm not like them no more
I don't look up no more, don't give a fuck no more
