

I knew a girl who'd wear my t-shirts when she went to sleep at night
She'd make sure I'm breathing in the morning
We were locked inside a room, I ate a pill shaped like the moon
Put her tongue into my mouth like she want it

We cannot hide the secret anymore
I'm inside, I'll let you take control
Once we met, I cannot love someone again
Cut my chest, gave you my heart and soul

Wait, where you going?
Close my eyes
She said, "I'm coming with you tonight" (Yeah)
Close my eyes
Count to ten and see if I die

I knew a girl who saw me cry before 'cause I was broken
I was in hell burning alive, how did you find me here?
She wrapped her arms around her body and said, "Don't stop holding Now start the car, baby, and take me the fuck out of here"

Rip my shirt, I feel your skin on mine
This is yours, you can take my life
Drip my words, onto the paint your knife
Did not work, no, we could've died

Wait, where you going?
Close my eyes
She said, "I'm coming with you tonight" (Yeah)
Close my eyes
Count to ten and see if I die

Write it in blood and we both sign
Sid and Nancy, a murder suicide
These are her words and mine
Sid and Nancy, a murder suicide

I'm not watching you
With somebody else in the fight for the next life
I'm not sorry
I don't care you cry, if we die, then we die, let's go

Wait, where we going?
Close my eyes
She said, "I'm coming with you tonight" (Yeah)
Close my eyes
Count to ten and see if I die

Write it in blood and we both sign
Sid and Nancy, a murder suicide
These are her words and mine
Sid and Nancy, a murder suicide
