split a pill

Machine Gun Kelly

Do you think I start off the song, a little too loud?

I'm not sorry for screaming, "fuck you"
When it was quiet in a room you invited me to
Last night, I had a flight, but I missed it for you
I got a pill and I split this with you, yeah
Tongue-kissed with you, yeah
She a punk bitch, she cool, yeah
I can't tell if it was you or the drugs
But I don't think I could function without you, yeah

I'm so sorry, I said I love you, and I was high but I think it's time to calm down

I fall in love when I get wasted
I'm okay with being hated
I'm sober now, and I don't care
So let's split a pill and break up
Let's split a pill and break up

Hi, I'm still in your driveway
I, will wait here for five days
Will you, open your window?
Just to hear you say, "fuck you"
Who am I to surround your heart inside?
Anti-depressants are in mind
Can't buy, the love you saved inside
So I broke in this time

I'm so sorry, I said I love you, and I was high but
I think it's time to calm down

I fall in love when I get wasted
I'm okay with being hated
I'm sober now, and I don't care
So let's split a pill and break up
Let's split a pill and break up

I've lost all of my feelings
(I keep on suffocating)
These pills I take don't heal me
(These pills I take might kill me)
I've lost all of my feelings
(And I keep on suffocating)
These pills I take don't heal me

I fall in love when I get wasted
I'm okay with being hated
I'm sober now, and I don't care
So let's split a pill and break up
Let's split a pill and break up
Let's split a pill and break up
