Machine Gun Kelly

I'm terrified of how I'm gonna look when I'm old
I can't even see you 'cause the room's full of smoke
I don't wake up until the sun gets low
Seven billion people but we all die alone, so

I want something else
To get me through this
Semi-charmed kind of life
Baby, baby
I want something else
I'm not listenin' when you say
Goodbye

Says she wanna see the real me, so I'm standing naked
Try to understand who I am, so overrated
We can get close, touch lips, have conversation
From the midwest but we need Californication

I've been up for day-ay-ay-ay-ays
Cuttin' up the yay-ay-ay-ay-ay
Rolling up the flay-ay-ay-ay-ame
That's a three way-ay-ay-ay-ay

I want something else
To get me through this
Semi-charmed kind of life
Baby, baby
I want something else
I'm not listenin' when you say
Goodbye

I could count the hours and the minutes that it's been without you
Take a heart and break it, if you wanna know, I'll show you how to You're not here in person, so all I can do is sing about you
I've been hearing rumors from the people that you keep around you
And, yeah, I know your friends don't like me, and You're unlikely to
Think I could change 'cause you know I'm born hopeless
Love on the brain but it came from the doses

I've been up for day-ay-ay-ay-ays
Cuttin' up the yay-ay-ay-ay-ay
Rolling up the flay-ay-ay-ay-ame
That's a three way-ay-ay-ay-ay

I want something else
To get me through this
Semi-charmed kind of life
Baby, baby
I want something else
I'm not listenin' when you say
Goodbye

And these four chords could make me cry
When I'm with you, I feel like I could die
And that would be alright
Alright, yeah

I'm in the
Wrong place, wrong planet, uh
Wrong place, wrong planet, uh
Run away, keep runnin', yeah
Run away, keep runnin', mmm
Wrong place, wrong planet, uh
Wrong place, wrong planet, uh
Run away, keep runnin', uh
