Machine Gun Kelly

Suddenly, suddenly I watched you decide I was gonna be
Summon me, summon me to the other side from this tragedy
Underneath, underneath, hide it all inside underneath
Kept it in disguise under me
Everyone's alive except for me

No one on my side, it's only me
It's only me
How can I survive by any means?
Any means
Have you ever fuckin' cried in a limousine? (Cried)
Think about you when I'm high, you're like a melody (Oh)
In my head (Oh)

I thought we had something special, it ended up dead

Fuck it, ended up dead, damn
You were on my side, allegedly Fell out with my guys 'cause of jealousy
I thought we was tight, but we enemies
Now it's on sight if you mention me
I flipped the switch on, and turned off my emotions like I fuck in' glitched
And I'm too high to notice fallin' through the oceans
Drownin' in this drink that look like potion
This shit gets me through the motions
It's on

Suddenly, suddenly I watched you decide I was gonna be
Summon me, summon me to the other side from this tragedy
Underneath, underneath, hide it all inside underneath (Inside)
Kept it in disguise under me (Disguise)
Everyone's alive except for me

Except for me
Yeah
