

Atomic Revelations

Machine Head

Baptizer
Christen the unknown
This wretched hellfire disintegrates bone
Paint this world in ash and stone
Life's destruction we enthrone

A warning for the ages
Speak the atomic prayer
The ritual of sages
A church of our despair

Worship at the altar or the human race will fall
Incapable disposal, this nuclear atoll

Carnage unimaginable
The ravages of greed and waste
Cult of the fanatical
A warning for a future age

Atomic revelations
These cryptic devastations
Showered in radiation
Our future's dark creation

Divisor
The scourge of earth's decay
The bastards from the past were born to betray
Atomic priesthood warns the doomed
Defy these rites and be consumed

A nuclear reaction
Atoms collide and clash
Hereafter falls to ashes
All life gone in a flash

Manufactured holocaust of nuclear design
When death becomes the future, humanity benign

Carnage unimaginable
The ravages of greed and waste
Cult of the fanatical
A warning for a future age

Atomic revelations
These cryptic devastations
Showered in radiation
Our future's dark creation

Worship it
Worship it
Follow it
Follow it
Pray to be prepared

Worship it
Worship it
Follow it

Follow it
Pray to be prepared

Atomic revelations
