

Bleeding Me Dry

Machine Head

There's something I need to confess
Now that we're out of this mess
Your love suffocated my soul
I'm sorry that I was so
Blindly devoted, you swallowed me whole
And all of this tension was taking its toll
The whiskey and wine that we drank till we're blind
The farther and farther we're lost in the sands of time
I lose, you win
We're both losing
When I'm with you
You leave me swallowed

WHOLE

From the mountains to the sea
Nothing here belongs to me
I'm swallowed

WHOLE

See the end, but cannot speak
Rotten tongue and broken teeth
I'm always wrong but when I'm right
It doesn't come without a fight
You're bleeding me

DRY

You

BLEED

Me

You're bleeding me

DRY

You

Me

There's no pain without living life
This liquor helps cope with the strife
We talked of you being my wife
Picket fences, some kids, and two bikes
But all that was a fantasy lost in our haze
Through all of the weed smoke and piles of cocaine
A pharmacy of Vicodin, Percs, refillers
You and I were worst friend's best painkillers
I guess it's true
I don't love you
If I don't go
You'll leave me swallowed

WHOLE

From the mountains to the sea
Nothing here belongs to me
I'm swallowed

See the end but cannot speak
Rotten tongue and broken teeth
I'm always wrong but when I'm right
It doesn't come without a fight

You're bleeding me dry

'Cause anywhere was better than here
Now your demons hold you dear

Never lookin' back, never lookin' back
A second-class citizen, the straw that broke my fuckin' back
Never lookin' back, never lookin' back
I'll keep taking punches
Until my eyes are turned to black

I'm swallowed

WHOLE

From the mountains to the sea
Nothing here belongs to me

I'm swallowed

WHOLE

See the end, but cannot speak
Rotten tongue and broken teeth
I'm always wrong but when I'm right
It doesn't come without a fight
You're fucking bleeding me

DRY

You

You're fucking bleeding me

DRY

You

You're fucking bleeding me dry
