

Kill Thy Enemies

Machine Head

Kill thy enemies
Forge your destiny
Love will set you free
Rise this dynasty

Bloody and belligerent, delusions made of their foment
Agonizing arrogance, white privilege and the folly of pride
These are the battles of time
Death cult, tired and blind
There is no comprise with their kind
This nation's vast divide

Kill thy enemies
Forge your destiny
Love will set you free
Rise this dynasty

Traitors and seditionists, betray our country to cultists
Hatred and maliciousness, Jim Crow and a Bible of lies
My heart is turning to stone
Blood oath, iron, and bone
Remembering the wolves are at the gates
These fascists lie in wait
I'm asking you to heed the call

Kill thy enemies
Forge your destiny
Love will set you free
Rise this dynasty
Our hearts will never bleed
Our strength will never cede
Iron and dignity
Manifest destiny

Our hearts will never bleed
Our strength will never cede
Iron and dignity
Manifest destiny

Kill thy enemies
Forge your destiny
Love will set you free
Rise this dynasty

Our hearts will never bleed
Our strength will never cede
Our hearts will never bleed
Our strength will never cede
Our hearts will never bleed
Our strength will never cede
