

No Gods, No Masters

Machine Head

The helm of awe and terror
Protector of the realm
Savior of all its bearer
In battles never fell
Behold the eye of conjuring
The demon's hell unleashed
Ascension lost in wandering
Our spirits facing East

Gomorrah's decadence
A feast of pain
Sodom a sanctuary
Across the plains
The common knowledge burned
To hell we're sent
Dying for dissidence
The punishment

No gods, no masters
No lords above

Psalms to a broken idol
The elegies we sing
Praying to lust so carnal
Pleasure temptations bring
Silent and stoic faces
We curse the crimson sky
Our blood is slowly boiling
Knowing that we may die

Fractured and battered lives
We fed the curse
This chaos cavernous
Deep in the earth

The books of nevermore
They are the past
Crossing the Rubicon
The die is cast

No gods, no masters
No lords above
No gods, no masters
No lords above

We're past the point of no return
Religion's flame, watches the world burn
Unchain your life from Christianity
Unleash thy destiny

No gods
No masters
Shall tell me how to live
No gods
No masters
Shall tell me how to live

No gods, no masters
No lords above
No gods, no masters
No lords above
