

Unbound

Machine Head

Unbound
Unbreakable
You'll never tear us down
Never you'll wear the crown

Blackout
Running in the shadows
Walking the streets addictions taking their toll
Knocked out
Crawling on my elbows
These broken fingers pull me out of this hole

Wading through the endless slaughter
Standing tall we never falter
Bloody but unbroken martyr
Fearless and bold

Never let them take the power
Fought through every darkest hour
Purge away the weakness
Never cower or fold

Mirrors and white lies
The vessels of our pride
Never forget, we will never forgive
Never forget, we will never forgive

Unbound
Unbreakable
You'll never tear us down
Never you'll wear the crown

Unbound
Unstoppable
Unrivalled power we are
Unbound, unbound

My roots, underground and deeper
Crawled from the gutter, breaking the chains
Black boots, running from the reaper
Dodging his sickle, got one foot in the grave

Sick of all the compromising
Bullshit also agonizing
Temperature is rising as I'm clenching my fist
Stop with all the plagiarizing
We are fire cauterizing
Not apologizing
I'm the king of the sick

Mirrors and white lies
The vessels of our pride
Never forget, we will never forgive
Never forget, we will never forgive

Unbound
Unbreakable

You'll never tear us down

Unbound
Unstoppable
Unrivaled power we are unbound, unbound

I hear the tolling of the bell again
Clarion call for the decadent
Our majesty infernal
The alchemy nocturnal
Legacy will live eternal

Unbound
Unbreakable

Unbound
Unstoppable

Unbound, unbound
Unbound
Unbound, unbound
Unbound
Unbound, unbound
Unbound
Unbound, unbound
