

Place Taken

Machinemade God

Watch me taking control of your game
I won't be a figure on your board of destiny
I became your strongest opponent and now it is my turn Even if I fail, I tried and others will follow

The day has come
we rise
Questions fall away Answers lead me
to lies

The storm is on, a thunderstrike straight to your evil heart A lightening bold to your regime Clouds of justice and freedom
The rain of truth brings hope
The wind of change breaks your lies

The day has come
we rise
Questions fall away
to lies
Anguished are my eyes

Sense fading through my eyes anguish is leaving me Stumbling through this maze and I disappear...
