That's a love lost right there
That's a love lost right there
Man, somebody better pick it up now
That's a love lost right there
We coulda went harder, baby
Yeah, we shoulda been smarter, baby
Yeah we shoulda been amazing
A little patience
Woulda went a long way for us baby, yeah

I know we had options all around, 'round
Yeah, you know we had options all around, 'round
Tell me that you going home to him, make me proud, proud
Ayy girl, I'm just in a zone; thinking out loud

'Cause all we had to do was choose
All we had to do was choose
How did we let love clear the room?
And all we had to do was... do was
All we had to do was choose
All we had to do was choose
Baby, let our hearts just feel the boom
All we had to do... do was
All we had to do was choose

Now can't you see the love lost right there?
Man, somebody better pick it up now
That's a love lost right there
Man we coulda been flawless, baby...
On some "yo, just fuck em all" shit, baby
Took a shot and we missed it
A little distance
Now we never even callin baby... yeah...

I know we had options all around, 'round
Yeah, you know we had options all around, 'round
Tell me that you going home to him, make me proud, proud
Ayy girl, I'm just in a zone; thinking out loud

'Cause all we had to do was choose
All we had to do was choose
How did we let love clear the room?
And all we had to do was... do was
All we had to do was choose
All we had to do was choose
Baby, let our hearts just feel the boom
All we had to do... do was

Girl, it's the realest thing I ever had to deal with Emotions outta control, looking for the kill switch
Still its
The way that you do it like nobody can
Girl, I see the way that you doin' niggas, body cam
But I know you need what you need, how you need it tho?
Say that corny nigga hit it right, but does he eat it tho?
Probably so
These are details I don't even wanna visualize

But I'm still here, same question: "is it mine?"
You say, you say, you say, are you ready for the answer?
Ready as I'll ever be, so tell me why can't you choose?
Like I can't choose
Way too many options
Watch me audible
I can run, I can pass on em
Small waist, fat ass on em
But I can never ever last with em
That's why you gotta hit me back woman
'Cause all we had to do is choose

'Cause all we had to do was choose
All we had to do was choose
How did we let love clear the room?
And all we had to do was... do was
All we had to do was choose
All we had to do was choose
Baby, let our hearts just feel the boom
All we had to do... do was...
All we had to do was choose
