

Simple Things

Mack Wilds

Why am I so drawn to all your darkness?
Here I go again, blurring the lines
Your love isn't based on my trajectory
I'm uninterested in leading the blind

There's just something different 'bout your love
See, I could look somewhere else for it all
See, I don't ask for much, but all I want
Is simple things
Girl, it's the simple things I need
Simple things
It's the simple things I need

You find it so easy to be heartless
It's funny 'cause you wear yours on your sleeve
You say you play for keeps but you be bluffin'
And I just play along like I'm naive

There's just something different 'bout your love
Oh...
See, I could look somewhere else for it all
See, I don't ask for much, but all I want
Is simple things
Girl, it's the simple things I need
Simple things
It's the simple things I need

I don't know why, but I want you
It's kinda funny what this pain do
Keep me coming back around like a drive-thru
Could have any on a "come thru"
And your friends tellin' you what you should do

It's growing old, call it mildew
And while you playing around, the kid really a class act
No preview
Your love's war, but it's legal
We fight hard, we fuck equal

It's never resistance when it feeds you
But when it's me, it's lethal
Yeah...

This dangerous game
We playing in this dangerous game
It's like, one wrong move and we're never the same
A heartbreaker be your claim to fame
But damn! Ay

But there's just something different 'bout your love
I could look somewhere else for it all
Oh...
Oh...
I don't ask for much, but all I want (What I want)
Is simple things (Simple things, yeah)
Girl, it's the simple things I need
Simple things

It's the simple things I need
