Mackenzie Bourg

I got pimples on my back
That I've been saving for you
It's weird to say that aloud
And probably weirder it's true

Oh, there's no way
I could get breakfast at McDonalds
Without ordering hotcakes for you

Everything
Reminds me of you
And I hate it
It's been so long
My hearts still for you
I can't take it
I still wear your bracelets
I still wear your bracelets

I miss listening to you snore
And hearing you swear you don't
Trying to choose what to eat
When you don't know what you want

Oh, there's no way I could
Finish the shows that we started
I'm waiting to watch them with you

Everything
Reminds me of you
And I hate it
It's been so long
My hearts still for you
I can't take it
I still wear your bracelets
I still wear your bracelets

Everything
Reminds me of you
And I hate it
It's been so long
My hearts still for you
I can't take it
I still wear your bracelets
