

Can't Nobody

Mackenzie Carpenter

Nobody looks better in old blue jeans
Or a baseball cap with your favourite team
Nobody ever kept their eyes on me quite like you did
Nobody's ever sweet-talked my dad
Or made my mama look at me like that Nobody ever really made me laugh quite like you did

Maybe you seem too good to be true
Or maybe you're just good at what you do

Can't nobody write a song like Dolly
And can't no whiskey get me tipsy like Jack
Can't nobody raise hell like Dale
Comin' down that last lap
Can't nobody knock 'em out like Rocky
And nobody rocks 'em like Daisy Duke
Can't nobody love June like Johnny
And can't nobody break a heart like you, you

Nobody ever really could've guessed
You'd love and leave me for the next
But I can't hate you when that's what you do best

So I could stay up wishin' on some star
But you ain't changin', it's just who you are

Can't nobody write a song like Dolly
And can't no whiskey get me tipsy like Jack
Can't nobody raise hell like Dale
Comin' down that last lap
Can't nobody knock 'em out like Rocky
And nobody rocks 'em like Daisy Duke
Can't nobody love June like Johnny
And can't nobody break a heart like you

Well, you've got walkin' out down to a T
But can't nobody move on quite like me

Can't nobody write a song like Dolly
And can't no whiskey get me tipsy like Jack
Can't nobody raise hell like Dale
Comin' down that last lap
Can't nobody knock 'em out like Rocky
And nobody rocks 'em like Daisy Duke
Can't nobody love June like Johnny
And can't nobody break a heart like
You (Can't nobody)
You (Can't nobody)

Can't break a heart like you
Can't break a heart like you
