

Easy To Miss

MacKenzie Porter

Jackets still hanging on the edge of my bed
The things you forgot make it hard to forget
So I'm right here hanging on by a thread right where you left me

Cologne on my pillow
Open all the windows
Said I was gonna clear the air
But if I'm being real though
I'm still here hanging on by a thread right where you left me

Well it's hard waking up in the morning
And it's hard getting' sleep at night
And it's hard when I'm reeling
Staring at the ceiling
With you on my mind
And it's hard holding onto nothing with my arms 'round the emptiness
But it's harder to let go
Why you gotta be so easy to miss?

I can try to take a breather
I can step outside
But I'm no good at getting you off my mind
I end up getting nowhere no matter how many miles I get behind me

Well it's hard waking up in the morning
And it's hard getting' sleep at night
And it's hard when I'm reeling
Staring at the ceiling
With you on my mind
And it's hard holding onto nothing with my arms 'round the emptiness
But it's harder to let go
Why you gotta be so easy to miss?

Yeah why you gotta, why you gotta. Why you gotta be so
Yeah why you gotta, why you gotta. Why you gotta be so ooh
Easy to miss

Yeah, it's hard waking up in the morning
And it's hard getting sleep at night
And it's hard when I'm reeling
Staring at the ceiling
With you on my mind
And it's hard holding onto nothing with my arms 'round the emptiness
But it's harder to let go
Why you gotta be so easy to miss?

Yeah ooh why you gotta be so
Yeah ooh why you gotta be so
