

One More Whiskey Song

MacKenzie Porter

He never liked going out that much
He never really got along with my friends
You think I wouldn't be so hung up
Yeah, I know that doesn't make much sense
But here I am, tryna have one good night
Drown him out with the girls downtown
But all of these cover bands get on a roll
And bring me back down

If I hear one more whiskey song
'Bout some bar you're leaning on
Drinking 'bout a boy who used to be the one
Until you messed it up and now he's gone
We all came here to have fun
Not get drunk and miss someone
Wanna get him off my mind, but man, I won't
If I hear one more whiskey song

You can sing about fishing in the dark
You can sing Sweet Home Alabama
If you gotta do a drinking one
At least make it 'bout a half-full glass
Instead of that same old, too slow, too sad three four Heartbroken one where it all goes wrong
I swear I'm gonna have to head home

If I hear one more whiskey song
'Bout some bar you're leaning on
Drinking 'bout a boy who used to be the one
Until you messed it up and now he's gone
We all came here to have fun
Not get drunk and miss someone
Wanna get him off my mind, but man, I won't
If I hear one more whiskey song
If I hear one more whiskey song, mm

If I hear one more whiskey song
It'll just remind me that he's gone, oh yeah

Yeah, we all came here to have fun
Not get drunk and miss someone
Wanna get him off my mind, but man, I won't
If I hear one more whiskey song
If I hear one more whiskey song, yeah
If I hear one more whiskey song, hmm
I wanna get him off my mind, but man, I won't
If I hear one more whiskey song
