

These Days

MacKenzie Porter

We were one drag off a cigarette
No, we didn't smoke but we wanted to be cool
We were small town kids all vintage
Just a couple hallway famous fools
We were way over confident
We were in love and lovin' it
We were radio junkies, throwback country
Suckers for the old school

I'm thinking 'bout those days, these days
I'm thinking 'bout the '98 Chevrolet
Fake ID's, low-key dive bars
The back streets, back seats, and parked cars
I'm thinkin' of breakfast at midnight
Those matching tattoos and goodbyes
Do you think about those days these days, baby like I do?
'Cause I'm thinking about you
Do you think about those days, these days?
'Cause I'm thinking about you
Do you think about those days, these days?

There's a taste of you kiss me when you sip whisky
Take you back to seventeen
Every time you smell sunscreen baby
Do you see me dancing on a Bama beach?
Do you smile at the thought of it?
Do you ever just reminisce when you see an old photo
Wishing it was more than just another TBT?

I'm thinking 'bout those days, these days
I'm thinking 'bout the '98 Chevrolet
Fake ID's, low-key dive bars
The back streets, back seats, and parked cars
I'm thinkin' of breakfast at midnight
Those matching tattoos and goodbyes
Do you think about those days these days, baby like I do?
'Cause I'm thinking about you
Do you think about those days, these days?
'Cause I'm thinking about you
Do you think about those days, these days?

Do you wish that it was different?
We were in love and lovin' it
'Cause I'm thinking 'bout those days, these days
Wishing it was those days, these days

I'm thinking 'bout those days these days
I'm thinking 'bout the '98 Chevrolet
