

Pieces

Mackenzie Ziegler

Sometimes you've gotta fall to pieces (pieces, pieces, pieces)
So fall (two, three, four)

It can be hard, tryin' to be perfect
Shinin' like stars, but we keep burnin' out
Keep burnin' out
Goin' insane, when it's been hurtin'
Playin' this game, but we're still learnin' how Still learnin' how

Sometimes you've gotta fall to pieces to fall back into place
Sometimes you'll see that all you needed was just a little faith
Cause everything's gonna be alright
We're up and we're down, but it's alright
Sometimes you've gotta fall to pieces to fall back into place
So fall (two, three, four), fall (two, three, four)

Times will get tough, but you'll get tougher
We gotta trust, it'll get better soon, will get better soon
After this storm's always a rainbow
Roses have thorns, that don't mean they won't bloom, don't mean they won't bloom

Sometimes you've gotta fall to pieces to fall back into place (fall back into place)
Sometimes you'll see that all you needed was just a little faith (just a little faith)
Cause everything's gonna be alright
We're up and we're down, but it's alright
Sometimes you've gotta fall to pieces to fall back into place
So fall (two, three, four), so fall (two, three, four), fall (two, three, four)

So we keep on smilin', we come back fightin'
And nothin' can make us back down
Cause we live this moment, if we feel broken
We know how to pick it up now

Sometimes you've gotta fall to pieces to fall back into place, oh
Sometimes you've gotta fall to pieces to fall back into place (fall back into place)
Sometimes you'll see that all you needed was just a little faith (just a little faith)
Cause everything's gonna be alright
We're up and we're down, but it's alright
Sometimes you've gotta fall to pieces to fall back into place

So fall (two, three, four)
