

Four Legs

Macseal

Passed out on the couch
It's early morning, I've been thinking
What's what and who's important
Should I sleep for the sake of dreaming?

It'll take some time for you to wake up
It'll take some time

Thought out and so divisive
Are you working or just excited?
Both ways are just as helpful
When shit gets hard and life's a handful

It'll take some time for you to wake up
It'll take some time

Cause the TV's like your teacher, and the birds are just a song
As four legs scratch the classroom floor, we'll just try to sing along
I'm missing out on learning, and every day brings a new picture
You're not scared, and we're all just freaking out

It'll take some time, just look for blue light
It'll take some time

Cause the TV's like your teacher, and the birds are just a song
As four legs scratch the classroom floor, we'll just try to sing along
Missing out on learning, and every day brings a new picture
You're not scared, and we're all just freaking out
You're not scared
