

Sleeping In

Macseal

Waking up in a sweat with stiff necks
The shades upon the window are shaking
I'll stay for five or ten, who's counting
It's the only thing that's keeping me going

When did we get so old?
It seems like just last week I pulled my arm back to my side
Nervous that you'd hide, but boy I was I wrong
Remember when I said it?
Just outside my neighbor's house
It barely came out
You barely heard it

I swear, it's the last time
You'll ever need to look
Cause you're right next to me and
It's all it ever took

It's all it ever took

Sleeping in, sleepwalking to your house in December
We could watch Sixth Sense in your living room
We could pretend you don't remember
That I'm not that great at conversation
No I'm not...

I swear, it's the last time
You'll ever need to look
Cause you're right next to me and
It's all it ever took
