

Cold World

Macy Gray

Who, who are you misfortune?
Are you real enough to help me to see?
I'm caught up in your rapture
With the words that you expect me to believe

And who do you think you are?
Nobody that I can recall
Well, I swear that I saw you before
Maybe in a dream, euphoria

Tell me is that your name?
Or isn't our reflection the same?
Or am I goin' insane?
I don't think I'm meant to be played

Maybe I do
Why don't anybody wanna look me in the eye?
What did I do?
And I don't wanna say it but
Misfortune is the look in their eyes

Misfortune, no friend of mine
I'm willing to testify
Her intentions are all I've found
Can you hear the judgement now?

And who do you think you are?
Somebody that I can recall
Well, I know I swear we met before before
Maybe in a dream, euphoria

Tell me is that my name?
I couldn't see that we were the same
They say that I'm going insane
'Cause I'm the only one in this game

I never lose
Why don't anybody wanna look me in the eye?
What did I do?
And I don't wanna say it but
Misfortune is the look in my eye
