

Undone

Macy Gray

Darlin' you've been out of touch with me
So distantly, oh don't you care I'm all alone
Is it justified where you go at night
I see that look in your eyes, oh it's so clear
But I put aside, whatever I feel inside
And I love you still and I'll stay still
Just for me to come UNDONE

Darlin' you're way too much me
You smother me
You push me there and I'm fallin'
And I close my eyes when you're gone at night
Hold my pillow tight cause love is gone
Why am I holding on
When this might be the death of my heart
But I can't lie
When you leave I wait...

Is it justified where you go at night
I see that look in your eyes, oh it's so clear
But I put aside, what I feel inside
And I love you still and I'll stay still
Just for me to come UNDONE

Darlin' you've been out of touch with me
So distantly, you don't give a fuck that I'm all alone
Is it justified where you go at night
I see that look in your eyes, oh it's so clear
What I put aside, whatever I feel inside
And I'm still here and I'll stay here
Just for me to come UNDONE

Finish me, baby
Finish me, baby

Darlin' you're way too much me
Yeah, you smother me
Yeah, you push me there and I'm fallin'
And I close my eyes when you're gone at night
Hold my pillow tight cause love is gone
Why am I holding on
When this might be the death of my heart
And I can't lie
When you leave I wait

Is it justified where you go at night
I see that look in your eyes, oh it's so clear
What I put aside, whatever I feel inside
And I'm still here and I'll stay still
Just for me to come
