Where did you run to?

Where did you run to?
I wanna to go there with you
Where have you drifted away?
Oh baby, I cannot say
Where did you run to?

Where have you drifted away, baby, I cannot say

Where did you run to?

Where have you drifted away, baby, I cannot say
I'm feeling it in your heart, but you still walked away
I cry out your name, but you still will not stay
Where did you run to?

I wanna go there with you
Where have you drifted away?
Oh, baby, I cannot say
