

Brain built filthy, scattered fragments of genius
I'm a magnet for pain, I know what a bad dream is Don't tell me that I'm emo
Blew a million dollars, cocaine and casinos
Ran through a dozen girls I should've wifed up
Fucked a thousand bitches, had to keep my eyes shut
Fucked a thousand strippers, I could use a nice slut
All you need's a new chain and a nice truck
Listen to my music, I could hurt these kids
I am not your hero, I have thirteen cribs
Probably get it back, I'm a living legend
Been to Hell a bunch of times, but I've been to Heaven
Double back to do another double back back-flip
Double tap to like my Double Tap's jacket
Little devil bringing his presence to unwrap it
He'll never settle, sever your heads, he stopped slackin'

Go fuck yourself
If you ain't down with my team, go fuck yourself
If you don't like what I'm doin', go fuck yourself
Go fuck yourself, go fuck yourself

Shit is gettin' lit again
Please do not considerate it
You're not gonna get rid of him
Literally, I became illiterate
Addicted to the drugs
Talkin' more than just a little bit

Sittin' on my balcony and doing nothing
Every night, staring at the lights, I was truly suffering
Thinking my life's blown
I was three-thousand miles past the twilight zone
Guilt and regret weighing heavy on my conscience
Couldn't get my head around the strength to kill the monster
There's a reason that I mention this
This is for my people feeling lost, full of emptiness
Suicidal, I would strictly binge
Bad memories from this still make me cringe
Embarrassed and ashamed
Full of terror, full of pain
Demons dancing in my skull, they are very entertained
Conflicted from my own speculation
I'm a victim of my own reputation
Ripped purple shorts, veins bulging out
Now the warlock's back, bring the cauldron out

Go fuck yourself
If you ain't down with my team, go fuck yourself
If you don't like what I'm doin', go fuck yourself
Go fuck yourself, go fuck yourself
Go fuck yourself
If you ain't down with my team, go fuck yourself
If you don't like what I'm doin', go fuck yourself
Go fuck yourself, go fuck yourself
