

Mental Explosion

Madchild

I was meant to be frozen, thawed and eventually chosen
By God, it's a mental explosion
Bloodstream full of poisonous potion
Spit pain, acid rain, and corrosion
Heart full of rage, tears fill the ocean
Complex thoughts and my acts are ferocious
I have cracked, I'll attack these vultures
They say that the end of the world is approaching;
I am in a troubled spot, but I don't care
I am swamped with the thoughts of me conquering like Juggernaut
Made of rock, I will stomp with these rugged thoughts
And I will no longer act out the Devil's plot

When I die I hope to go to Heaven
An hour before the Devil finds out
I know I'm dope, I'm on another level
But afraid that they're gonna never find out

When I die I hope to go to Heaven
An hour before the Devil finds out
I know I'm dope, I'm on another level
But afraid that they're gonna never find out

Mad Child rocks mohawk and a tomahawk
I'm a little maniac armed with atomic bomb
Nobody can help you, I will fucking catch you
And scalp you, torch you, burn you and melt you
It's torture, I will burn down your fortress
With torches the magic of warlock and sorcerers
Send a messenger by horse to the castle
I will send him back with his head in a basket
Split personality depends on the mood I'm in Put em all together then it's lunacy in unison
Extraterrestrial barbaric mind state
Banned from America, very bad character

When I die I hope to go to Heaven
An hour before the Devil finds out
I know I'm dope, I'm on another level
But afraid that they're gonna never find out
(God forgive em)

Thought I was mischievous and clever, (nope)
My devious endeavours enslave your soul
I've emerged from the darkness
Reborn like Hellspawn, back underground like Deltron
Daily dosage of Red Bull, Suboxone
And nicotine instalments ripping through this goblin
Sickening involvement, bastards that feed off my dastardly deeds
They are masters of greed
From being general of Hell's army to God's servant
Not perfect but now observant
I slash demons and slay serpents
I am the bad guy, boy are they nervous
Thought that I would self-destruct but was reluctant
Back to full their bathtubs up with blood
Face responsibility and replace the tasteless

And unplug the matrix, these dumb-dumbs are basic

When I die I hope to go to Heaven
An hour before the Devil finds out
I know I'm dope, I'm on another level
But afraid that they're gonna never find out
(Pay attention)

When I die I hope to go to Heaven
An hour before the Devil finds out
I know I'm dope, I'm on another level
But afraid that they're gonna never find out
(I'm a fucking diamond in the rough, man)

I know I'm dope, I'm on another level
But afraid that they're gonna never find out
(I'm the greatest human being out)
