

Myself

Madchild

Myself
That's all that really matters to me
Myself
That's all that really matters to me
Myself
Why these haters wanna talk about me?
Myself
Face it, I'm the one that you wanna be
Myself

I'm conceited, got a big ego
My personalities are like, "where he goes, we go."
Stay with my people, I'm not a selfish guy
I look out for me, myself and I
Too many problems with the outside world to list
Why they gotta be like that when I'm like this?
Follow my lead and pay attention to me
So I can finally fucking be what I'm pretending to be
You should concentrate on making life better for me
Put me up on a pedestal and get on your knees
That's why I say this to myselfs (selves?)
Damn, don't these people know who I think I am?
They obviously got no idea or they fear me
You need to get to know me, but don't come near me
There's something wrong with my melon
There's voices in my head, please tell 'em to quit yelling

Myself
That's all that really matters to me
Myself
That's all that really matters to me
Myself
Why these haters wanna talk about me?
Myself
Face it, I'm the one that you wanna be
Myself

People getting me fucking stressed and shit
I go to bed when you eat breakfast from restlessness
Surveillance around my building with extra staff
One I'll cap you, one I'll snap your neck in half
'Cause I don't trust nobody
That's why I'm never by myself in a place that's crowded
I'm paranoid. Can you blame us?
I ain't trying to take some bullets to get famous
We'd rather give than receive
And you never underestimate the other guys greed!
Pay no attention, never mind me
Fuck that, I'ma just take whatever I need

Myself
That's all that really matters to me
Myself
That's all that really matters to me
Myself
Why these haters wanna talk about me?
Myself

Face it, I'm the one that you wanna be
Myself
