

Moonlight over Silver White

Madder Mortem

Moonlight over silver white
Angry stars are out tonight
Glaring down on battered snow
I have nowhere else to go
Countless gentle blades of light
So pristine and always right
Solemnly reminding me
Of all the things I'll never be

Here's the silence, soft as down
Clean and lonely

Sleep, and it's over
Blink, and it's done
Bright are those cold lights
As they laugh at anyone
Moonlight over silver white

Feel the noise subside
Here's the moment when you know:
There'll be no one by your side for this
Moonlight over silver white
Angry stars that burn too bright
Catch my breath and let it go
Fade like footprints in the snow

Endless quiet, vast and old
Clean and lonely

Sleep, and it's over
Blink, and it's done
Bright are those cold lights
The blinding stare of a winning hand
And it laughs at everyone
Moonlight over silver white
