

Almighty

Maddi Jane

There's a lot of feelings competing for my attention
I never feel peace 'til I sit down with you and listen
Holy, holy. Hold my hand
Cover me and guide my steps
You're the king of promises

I was lost but I found my way
You're on time. My time and place
Turned my back but you always stayed
Never left me, father
I was broke, but you showed me mercy
Your love heals when I'm hurting
Didn't think I was deserving
Still I am your daughter

Mighty
I am through your eyes so free
There's no need to hide
You have showed me what love can be like
I've been different since you caught the tears that I cried

Mighty
I am through your eyes so free
There's no need to hide
You have showed me what love can be like
I've been different since you caught the tears that I cried

You gave me all I needed
You are the air I'm breathing
Don't wanna leave this feeling
I
I was stuck in a rut like Joseph
No light. Just waiting on a moment
You fulfilled all my hoping

I was lost but I found my way
You're on time. My time and place
Turned my back but you always stayed
Never left me, father
I was broke, but you showed me mercy
Your love heals when I'm hurting
Didn't think I was deserving
Still I am your daughter

Mighty
I am through your eyes so free
There's no need to hide
You have showed me what love can be like
I've been different since you caught the tears that I cried

Mighty
I am through your eyes so free
There's no need to hide
You have showed me what love can be like
I've been different since you caught the tears that I cried

There's no need to hide

Worthy is the lamb

Can you feel the difference?
Something heavy lifted
Didn't have the faith to picture this
Still he gave me all of this

Can you feel the difference?
Something heavy lifted
Didn't have the faith to picture this
I've been different since you caught the tears that I cried
