

Good Plans

Maddi Jane

Found myself smiling
For no reason at all
Kinda took me by surprise
Talked to someone with wisdom
For perspective and vision
They said it's only a matter of time, of time

'Till you see His good plans, good plans
Even when you don't understand
They are good plans, good plans
Believe, believe
It may not be on your time
But your life is lived inside His presence
I know there are good plans, good plans
Believe
You'll see

God, it wasn't by sight that I got this far
It wasn't by might, it was who You are
It was Your guidance
It was your heart for me, for me
Your heart for me to dance
Your heart for me to fly
Your heart for me to take these chances knowing that You're by my side
Your heart for me to thrive
Your heart for me to soar
Your heart for me to look at myself not seeing who I was before, before

Good plans, good plans
Even when I don't understand
They are good plans, good plans
Believe, believe
It may not be on my time
But my life is lived inside His presence
I know there are good plans, good plans for me
I'll see

You won't let go, my God
You're in control, my God
If it goes my way or not
Good, good plans for me
You won't let go, my God
You're in control, my God
If it goes my way or not
If it goes my way or not

Good plans, good plans
Even when you don't understand
There are good plans, good plans
Believe
You'll see
You'll see
